- A piece of paper and a red pen
- A small bowl or dish (for burning the paper)

Preparation:

1. Cleanse the Space: Light the incense and let the smoke purify the area. Visualize white light clearing any negative energy.
2. Prepare the Candles: Anoint them with the oil, moving from the base to the wick, focusing on your love intention. Place them side by side.
3. Arrange the Items: Put the photo (or personal objects) between the candles.

The Ritual:

1. Lighting the Candles:
   - Light both candles while saying: "Flame of love, burn bright and true,Strengthen our bond in all we do.By this sacred fire, our hearts unite,May our love burn eternal and bright."
2. Writing Your Intention:
   - On the red paper, write your names intertwined (e.g., "Sarah & Alex") or a loving phrase that represents your relationship.
   - Fold the paper toward you (to draw in the energy) and place it beneath the candles.
3. Symbolic Binding:
   - Take the red ribbon and tie it around the two candles (or objects), visualizing an unbreakable connection. Say: "As this ribbon binds us tight,So our love shines day and night.Through joy and trials, we stand as one,Our love enduring, never undone."
4. Visualization:
   - Close your eyes, hold hands if performing together, and imagine a warm pink light surrounding you both, deepening your love and passion.
5. Closing the Ritual:
   - Let the candles burn completely (or snuff them out gently if needed, saying: "May this flame live forever in our hearts.").
   - Keep the ribbon and photo in a sacred place (under your pillow, in a special drawer).
   - Safely burn the paper in the bowl, thanking the universe for its blessings.

Tip: Perform this ritual during a Full Moon (for power) or on a Friday (Venus' day) for extra potency. Speak from the heart to personalize the energy.
