

A UFO spotted over Paramaribo during one hour

On October 17, 2001, many people living in Suriname, a little country located in northern South America, saw something odd. In the morning, an unidentified flying object is appeared in the sky.

It was 10 o'clock in Paramaribo, the country's capital. Suddenly, a UFO is appeared from nowhere over Fiora neighborhood where the Suriname air force base is located. All witnesses have said the same thing. The mysterious object moved in the sky from one point to another at an incredible speed. It seemed to be looking for something.

Some time later, the same object was seen above the district of Cupido, in west Paramaribo. Once again, it moved back and forth.

One hour later, it disappeared. What was it doing over Paramaribo? Was it looking for something? What do you think about that?
