

He meets God during a near death experience

A man named Ronald was driving his car in the middle of winter on an icy road. He was in a car accident and lost consciousness.

While unconscious, he had a near-death experience. In the hereafter, he saw the impressive silhouette of a bearded man surrounded by a light. Ronald quickly understood that this person was God. He told his story on the Near Death Experience Research Foundation (NDERF) website. There she is:

“Before I could come to a stop, I found my self standing before this brilliant and awesome light. There was no tunnel.”

“I was standing there in a dark spot in front of this light. All I felt was pure Love. I could not move at all and could not hear or speak.”

“There were three figures in front of this light. Two of the figures looked like they were talking to each other. The third one saw me and then approached.”

“He had this glow around him. He had a beard and moustache. He was talking to me, but I couldn't hear him.”

“All of a sudden a figure appeared within the light. All I could make out was a shadow because of how bright the light was. He lifted up his right hand and the only words I heard was, 'Now is not your time.'”

“And puff, I was back in my body and my car in a ditch. I jumped out of the car, Praised the Lord, and prayed to get out of the ditch and make it home. The Lord helped me.”

“The one thing I got out of this is that it's not just faith any more. It's fact that GOD does exist. The pure Love I felt in the experience is real and I can't wait to get that back.”
